The Danny Craige Foundation Essay

At a young age, Danny Craige was taught the importance of family and community. He honored those who taught him by giving back to his community and as a family man, coach and mentor. It is the hope of this foundation to carry out his life's mission by giving young men and women the opportunity to make the most out of their gifts, so that they too learn to give back. Your essay is to include all four of the below listed attributes, all of which were essential to Danny Craige throughout his life. It should be typed and should not exceed 500 words. Utilize additional pages if necessary.
